BRODHEAD.

Miss Essie Pike, of Livingston, is with relatives here.

The firm of Albright & Adams will be dissolved Feb. 1 and each man will go into the goods business alone.

Sayers Bros. & Hamm have sold their saw mill to Wm. Brown and Geo. Albright. The mill will soon be moved from its present site in the Sayers neighborhood to a point near Bee Lick, where a tract of timber belonging to Bastin, of Crab Orchard, will be sawed.

Will the party who gave us the following item please pardon us for omitting it last week? At the regular election and installation of officers Monday, the 27th, of last month, Brodhead Lodge No. 566 F. & A. M. installed the following officers: Dr. W. E. Gravelly, W. M.; F. L. Durham, secretary; Sylvan Borders, S. W.; Julian Borders, J. W.; A. M. Hiatt, S. D.; W. H. Anderson, J. D.; J. C. Cherry, Treas.; J. Sigman, Tyler; Ed Smith and C. H. Frith, Stewards.

The debate between Rev. G. W. Roberts, of Ripley, Iowa, representing the Church of Christ, and Elder E. E. Long, of Lamona, Iowa, representing the Latter Day Saints, began last Monday night, when Rev. Roberts affirming, opened fire upon the Mormon. The subject to be discussed this week or in six discussions of two lectures each from each side, is whether or not the so-called Church of Christ is a Bible church. Each side is being ably discussed. Rev. Roberts is high up with the denomination he represents, while Elder Long is highly educated and well versed in the Mormon doctrine. Next week six more nights will begin, when the Mormon will affirm that his church is scripturally founded. Rev. Roberts will deny it. The debate is very interesting and is drawing a large crowd to this place. The chapel at the Graded School building is being used to accommodate the crowd which is attending. Edward Hubbard, of Stanford, is moderator for Rev. Roberts and Elder J. W. Metcalfe, of Louisville, for Elder Long. Rev. A. J. Pike is president. Elder John Hart, another Mormon elder, of Laramie, Iowa, is with Elder Long.

HON. HARVEY HELM, of Lincoln county, is a candidate for re-nomination for Congress from the Eighth district, subject to the action of the democratic party.

OWN A HOME.

A man who has a family owes it to himself and to them to own a home in which they may dwell. At least this should be the great effort of his life. Goldsmith sings of the golden age of England, when every man owned his "rood of land." There comes to the man who dwells in his own house a sense of citizenship, which he could not feel before. He becomes, thereby, identified with the community and the interests of the community become his interests. He feels a sense of responsibility he never before experienced. He feels a new interest in the roads, the schools, the churches, the taxes, the civil officers. He becomes jealous of the reputation of his community. There comes to himself and family a sense of independence which is peculiarly gratifying to human nature. A pride of home springs up which shows itself in trees and flowers, in paint and paper, in fences and gates. It is impossible to build up a neighborhood from the resources of a shifting tenantry. It is like speaking to a procession.

There was never such an opportunity for the tenants of Kentucky to own homes as the present. The labor conditions give to them the use of the soil. Farm products are enormously high. To the tobacco tenants, especially, this is the chance of a lifetime. In the last 25 years hundreds of tenants have saved their earnings and today are not only living in their own homes but many of them have blue-glass farms. This ought to be an inspiration to others. To this large class of industrious and worthy citizens let it be said "The land is before you, go up and possess it."

"I PLEDGED my support in 1907 to the support and enforcement of a uniform local option law with the county as its governing unit, because I believed in it. In my first and in a later message, I believed then and believe now that it was then and is now the serious wish of a great majority of the people of Kentucky, and notwithstanding the refusal of the last General Assembly to enact it, I present it again and again earnestly recommend this measure to your consideration and ask that it be adopted, and I shall keep the faith and sign it if it be enacted."—Gov. Willson in his message to the Legislature. And still when urged by thousands and thousands of the temperance people to call the Legislature into extraordinary session for the passage of temperance laws, Gov. Willson positively refused. Having gotten into office by the help of the whisky democrats, and owing them the debt of gratitude he does, the governor is not so anxious to have the county unit law extended as he would have the people believe.

HON. J. M. ALVERSON, of this office, won in the race for Assistant Clerk of the Senate, as we predicted he would. He got 24 votes out of the 26 democrats. The fellow, O'Connell, who ran against him, got only two votes, but from what we hear of him, that was about as many as he deserved. Senator E. Bertram, of the Wayne district, nominated Mr. Alverson in a handsome speech. Mr. Joel T. Embry, also of this place, surprised his friends by his runaway race for Doorkeeper of the House. He announced his candidacy only a day or so before the Legislature convened, but he won with votes to spare. He got 53 votes to his nearest opponent's 12. Success to both of the young men.

THE redistricting committee appointed by Gov. Willson would combine Boyle and Garrard into one Legislative district. Adair, now combined with Cumberland, would be a district by itself. Louisville and Jefferson county would be given ten Representatives instead of eight. Woodford and Jessamine would be combined and Rockcastle would be linked with Jackson instead of Laurel. Laurel would be a district by itself.

CAPT. JACKSON MORRIS, now of Frankfort but formerly a Jackson county man, tells the newspaper correspondents that Caleb Powers will likely defeat Congressman Edwards for the Congressional nomination in the 11th district. As Morris is a henchman of Powers, his utterances should be taken with a good supply of salt.

BECAUSE his wedding clothes did not arrive and he was forced to marry in a business suit, Walter D. Lathrop, of Atlanta, filed suit against the Southern Express Company for $1,000 damages. Eight hundred dollars of this amount is said to be for damages to his social standing and $200 for the loss of his wardrobe.

HON. W. H. SHANKS made a handsome speech nominating Mr. Willson for Speaker of the House. He knows how to do such things.

IN a pistol duel at Dresden, Tenn., between Prof. Clarence Carney and his mother-in-law, Mrs. Sarah Griffin, Carney was killed. Moral: Beware of your mother-in-law.

Additional Local.

MR. CICERO REYNOLDS declined to qualify as councilman and his place was to have been filled by the other members at the meeting last night. The election of city officers was also on the program for last night.

THE PIONEER OF FRATERNAL BENEFICIARY SOCIETIES.—The Knights of Honor. This grand order has done business in Kentucky for 37 years and has paid in this one State since its first death claim in 1875, the enormous sum of $5,483,461.78 and since its organization in 1873, it has paid to 50,000 beneficiaries of deceased members in the States $100,000,000. The order is progressive, yet conservative. Level rate plan. Your rate fixed at entry and so remains for life. Free initiation and only one assessment per month. No more raising of rates at old age. Relief to members over 70 years old who are disabled. For further information see J. Rickelman, special deputy, or Dr. T. S. Kennedy.

THE CARTER REUNION.—An enjoyable event to Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Carter was the home-coming of all their children for Christmas. W. Hill Carter, from Hugoton, Kansas, E. T. Carter, of Evansville, Ind., Miss Mary D. Carter, from Pittsburg, Pa., Miss S. Maud Carter, Morganton, N. C., came to meet with those at home to enjoy Christmas together. On Christmas day the father, mother, children and grandchildren, with Bro. J. Q. Montgomery, sat down to a sumptuous dinner, which had been most carefully prepared for the occasion and which was especially enjoyed by those who had not been at the home table for many years. Although all were happy and thankful to meet again at the old home and sit once more around the cheerful fireside, all hearts were made sad because of two vacant chairs. The two had gone on beyond—Miss Lizzie E. and Dr. P. Walter Carter. May the richest blessings attend this family and may they have many more reunions, is our wish. A FRIEND.

HUBBLE.—Whilst in the midst of great preparations for the festivities of Christmas and the reunion of family and friends, death, that most unwelcome messenger, made his appearance, claiming husband, father, grandfather and friend. How sad, yet it deeply impresses us that "in the midst of life there is death." John M. Hubble was born April 27, 1844, and died Dec. 29, 1909. He was, therefore, 65 years of age. While quite young he enlisted with Co. D, 13th Ky. cavalry. Shortly after returning home he joined the Baptist church and was a consistent member up to the time of his death, having served his church for 28 years as deacon. He was married to Miss Mary R. Bastin, to whom were born 10 children, eight of whom, together with his widow, survive. Mrs. Garland Singleton, of Stanford, is one of the children. To his dear wife, children, grandchildren, friends and church we extend our deepest sympathy. Thy will, oh God, be done. After the funeral services, conducted by Rev. W. G. Telford, his remains were laid to rest at Eubanks for that great day. R. K. NOEL.

TO THE INSURING PUBLIC.—Having suffered loss to our church building and contents at Hubble, Lincoln county, Ky., by lightning and being insured through Jesse D. Wearan, the insurance man, Stanford, Ky., we, the trustees and members of the above church take pleasure in recommending Jesse D. Wearan and the companies represented by him to the insuring public for the very prompt and liberal settlement of our loss. Signed, John C. Robinson, trustee, C. C. Withers, trustee, Richard Heister, trustee, James McKechnie, member, W. H. Underwood, member, J. A. Hammond, member.

"MA'S NEW HUSBAND."—The "Top-sy" of "Ma's New Husband" is even more eccentric and entertaining than the original character of that name ever was. So at least several critics say. Dorothy is the name of the maid of all work, who figures as the comedienne in this three act musical farce that has been crowding and turning away well pleased audiences everywhere it has appeared. Dorothy is droll in her manner, her talk and actions and she is clever in a musical way besides. Her comedy song "Jokes" is one of the musical hits of the performance. In the duet "A Kiss," a comic song, she also succeeds in raising many a laugh. Press exchanges agree in stating that "Ma's New Husband" is about the biggest laugh-maker on the road this season. No one should miss seeing it at Walton's Opera House where it will be presented on Tuesday evening next, Jan. 11. Seats will be on sale at Shugars & Tanner's Drug Store.

THE directors of the Lincoln County Fair are requested to meet at the First National Bank at 2:30 Friday afternoon, Jan. 7th. This is the last meeting and a full attendance is desired.

THE members of the Buffalo Springs Fishing Club are requested to meet at the office of the secretary on Friday evening at 7:30. Very important business to be brought up. T. W. Pennington, Sec'y.

TO TAXPAYERS LINCOLN COUNTY.—I will have to advertise and sell your property after Jan. 1 if your tax is not paid in order to make my final settlement with the State and county. Settle up and save this expense. T. J. Hill, sheriff.

THE NEW AND THE OLD.—The beginning of the new year marks many changes but every four years the changes are more numerous and county officials. The gentlemen elected on Nov. 2 have succeeded the old county officers. Judge James P. Bailey, for instance, succeeds Judge J. S. Owsley, Jr., who has made a most excellent county judge. Judge Bailey served eight years on the bench and the county never had a better official. County Attorney W. S. Burch succeeds himself and will continue to prosecute the evil doers and look after the legal portion of the county's affairs. The circuit clerk's office, which has been magnificently conducted for two terms by Mr. James F. Holdam, the cleverest man in the world, is now filled by that splendid gentleman, Mr. Josh D. Swope. Mr. T. J. Hill, who has made a most satisfactory sheriff and many friends during his tenure of office, has stepped aside for Mr. W. L. McCarty, who is well equipped to fill the office with credit alike to himself and the county. Mr. McCarty had a hard fight for his office and overcame obstacles which would have disheartened a less game fighter. "Thompy" Cooper will continue to carry the keys to the clerk's office, neither the democrats nor the republicans daring to oppose him for the position he can fill better than anybody. "Uncle" Dink Farmer succeeds R. H. Coffey as jailer and everybody is glad to see the clever old gentleman and splendid democrat in the place he has been running for since the memory of man runneth not to the contrary. Mr. Coffey filled the office well and to Mrs. Agnes Herrin a good portion of the credit is due. John C. Pepples the new assessor, is a big-hearted, sturdy farmer. He should make a capital assessor, having the knowledge of land and property that he has. His predecessor, W. A. Carson, has made one of the very best assessors the county ever had. Mr. Garland Singleton, for school superintendent, had no opposition for the nomination and Caleb Newell thought he was running against him in the final election, but was badly distanced. For the fourth term he has charge of the public schools of the county. Mr. George P. Bright succeeds himself as coroner and will continue to devote his attention to people who meet sudden and mysterious deaths. James McKechnie continues to answer to the name of Squire in the Stanford district. He is a good magistrate and the people showed good judgment in electing him. Mr. Jas. K. Helm succeeds Mr. W. M. Dudderar as magistrate in the West End and Rev. James N. Singleton will fill the place of Mr. D. R. Adams in the Waynesburg district. Rev. K. D. Noakes was re-elected as magistrate of the Crab Orchard district. The two last named are clever gentlemen, but their politics—well, excuse us.

GALVANI, the world-famed hypnotist, at Alcorn's Opera House, Hustonville, this, Friday, evening.

MR. T. P. EADS has moved to Crab Orchard, where he will open a butcher shop. We hope the East End people will give him a share of their patronage.

WE are glad to note that in the democratic caucus held Monday, Jesse M. Alverson, of Stanford, won so easily his fight for assistant clerk of the Senate, the vote being 24 for Alverson and 2 for W. B. O'Connell.—Advocate.

A VALUABLE family mare belonging to Mr. M. S. Baughman dropped dead in town yesterday. He drove her to town and there seemed to be nothing wrong with her. Mr. B. thinks her death was caused by heart trouble.

THE local option committee of Somerset has withdrawn its contest and saloons will be opened there at once. Somerset will now be the Mecca for those who want to sell booze as well as those who want a little of it for private use, or to make camphor with.

JUDGE M. C. SAUFLEY has appointed Samuel Nichols Master Commissioner of Boyle and Charles M. Denman Master Commissioner of Mercer. His son, Mr. Geo. B. Saufley, was appointed to the office in this county, and Attorney W. I. Williams received the appointment in Garrard.

L. W. HUGHES, formerly assistant ticket agent for the Louisville & Nashville at Stanford, came to Louisville this week to fill the position of assistant city ticket agent here. Mr. Hughes tendered his resignation at Stanford to accept the place in Louisville, which was formerly held by D. W. McDonald, who resigned last week. Mr. Hughes is a cousin of Robert E. Hughes, president of the Kentucky Electric Co., and is well-known in Louisville. He has seen long service in the railroad business.—Courier Journal.
